I Have Been Blessed With Love

Words & music by Markus Zosel

I have been blessed with love
And it is plain to see
That it reaches back
Reaches back
Goes right back to Thee

I was a wanderer
Afraid of stormy night and day
But there You came
And shone your light
Everything turned bright

Lord, let me understand
Don't you stop
To take my hand
Yes, it's true

If you did
That I'd be lost without

Now, take a look at me
That's all that I can offer you
All my words
And all these tunes
Shine right back to you

I have been blessed with love
And it is plain to see
That it reaches back
Reaches back
Goes right back to Thee

I was a wanderer
Afraid of stormy night and day
But there You came
And shone your light
Everything turned bright

Song of Old

Words & music by Markus Zosel

Song of old in emerald green
All the wonders I have seen
I've seen with you
They have been true
I'd like to sing 'em all my life
I'm gonna sing 'em all my life

Song of wonder
Song of joy
I can still see that little boy
With his mum's guitar
She had an old guitar
I have been singing all life long
I have been listening
To your song

Days go by
And days may come
Up a above a shining sun
Gives shelter to
All we gonna do
And in this light
You gotta feel

It's worth the price
When you do believe
In yourself or in a song

Song of old in emerald green
I've seen with you
They have been true
I'd like to sing 'em all my life
I'm gonna sing them all my life

Its Own Sparkling Light

Words & music by Markus Zosel

I dreamed of many a thing
That came to my mind
Like a thief in the night
Slightly surprised
By its own sparkling light

I thought of many a way
To mention things
Remaining unsaid
Standing still to view
What else can I do?

Am I really able to see?
Or has magic
Turned its back on me?
Standing there in wonder
And trying not to cry

The old west wind
Is howling again
And all that you plan
It might be in vain
And who might know better
When it's you once again?

I dreamed of many a thing
That came to my mind
Like a thief in the night
Slightly surprised
By its own sparkling light

I thought of many a way
To mention things

Remaining unsaid
Standing still to view
What else can I do?
What else could I do?

Seven Oceans

Words & music by Markus Zosel

Seven oceans
Just won't make me stay
Seven oceans
This I gotta say
Seven oceans
Bring me back to you
Wherever I may be turning
Whatever I may be yearning for
Seven oceans
Lead me back to you

I wonder what you're doing now
Without the things we lost somehow
I guess, I'm just some sort of fading memory
For you I'd be the wanderer
Who once was close then went afar
There was nothing to receive
That could make you believe
Though I'd gone
I'd be coming back

Seven oceans
Just won't make me stay
Seven oceans
This I gotta say
Seven oceans
Bring me back to you
Wherever I may be turning
Whatever I may be yearning for
Seven oceans
Lead me back to you

And somewhere down the road I see
It's gotta be my destiny
To travel down the road
Alone and free
But there's still a dream in me
That is about
You and me
My thoughts have been with you

There's nothing I can do
All these dreams
Lead me back to you

Seven oceans
Just won't make me stay
Seven oceans
This I gotta say
Seven oceans
Bring me back to you
Wherever I may be turning
Whatever I may be yearning for
Seven oceans
Lead me back to you

Seven oceans
Just won't make me stay
Seven oceans
This I gotta say
Wherever I may be turning
Whatever I may be yearning for
Seven oceans
Lead me back to you

Here and Now

Words & music by Markus Zosel

Here I am standing
You're on my mind
I never thought that
I would find you
Smiling in front of me
After all those years
We see us meeting
Here and now

Life takes you somewhere
With its own plan
Sometimes so hard
To understand
But now we can figure it out
What it was all about
Because we're standing
Here again

I might be foolish
But I'll go on Singing my life

With each brand new song
Who's there to say it's insane
There's only myself to blame
For I am singing
Here and now

This time I ask you
To not let go
Let it be a choice
Of your own
This time we'll stay
Without fear
Just let me hold you near
For we are standing
Here and now

Homestead

Words & music by Markus Zosel

I'm calling you
In colours bright
It's the fire before night
I'm calling
With a voice you know
Tell me where I gotta go
Homestead

Is anybody
Far out there?
Anybody
Who does care?
Someone
Who can answer me?
Someone
Who does see?
Homestead

Love and life
In one enshrined
With all the truth
You bear in mind
Without sorrow on the way
You gotta smile
Don't be sad
Tell me

I'm calling you
In colours bright

It's the fire before night
I'm calling
With a voice you know
Homestead

Is anybody
Far out there?
Anybody
Who does care?
Someone
Who can answer me?
Someone
Who does see?
Homestead

In Case of You

Words & music by Markus Zosel

I stood by the road
With all the things I've been told
In memory of all
Things bright and fair
Wherever I roamed
I found them right there
In case of you
In case of you

I tried to go along
By singing a brand new song
Trying to make
Believe it was you
A broken heart
And nothing to do
In case of you
In case of you

And every now and then
I can clearly see again
Images that remain
In case of you

And just like an early morn
The world around
Feels just reborn
In simple notions
That had gone
In case of you

Deep inside my mind
I can still see that light
That shines my way
Wherever I go
On familiar lanes
And those I don't know
In case of you
In case of you

And every now and then
I can clearly see again
Images that remain
In case of you

And just like an early morn
The world around
Feels just reborn
In simple notions
That had gone
In case of you

I stood by the road
With all the things I've been told
In memory of all
Things bright and fair
Wherever I roamed
I found them right there
In case of you
In case of you

I Made it up to You

Music by Markus Zosel

Everywhere I go
It makes me glad to know
That I am able to
See and let you know

All the wonders and
Ways to understand
Lord, let me take your hand
To follow down the road

It's in so many ways
It's even in your own face
And leaves a little trace
For everyone to see

So just don't wonder then
It's not hard to comprehend
All that I ever needed
Was right inside of me

Love of a different kind
I got you on my mind
And it's not hard to find
I fell in love with you

I once was standing still
But now I found the thrill
Of sharing all I have
I made it up and always will

And even when it's dark
There's just this little spark
That has the power to Light it up again
Come and let me know
I'd love to see somehow
All changes you did know
To make it new again

But everywhere I go
It makes me glad to know
That I am able to
See and let you know

All the wonders and
Ways to understand
To follow down the road

The Old Diner

Words & music by Markus Zosel

Where has it gone
It used to be
The place for us
To meet and see?
Where has
Yes, where has it gone?

They've taken away
The heart of all
Friday night and

Most of all
I'm gonna miss
This diner so bad

Change occurs
Most everywhere
I'm aware of that
And so sincere
But it doesn't change
That I am sad
It's gone

Sometimes it's We Like to hold on to Things that have passed by
And things gone through
To vanish and will come no more

Where has it gone
It used to be
The place for us
To meet and see?
Where has
Yes, where has it gone?

The old diner's gone
I leave the place
In dark window panes
I can see your face
A reflection of Happier days gone by

That's for Sure

Words & music by Markus Zosel

You do know what you mean to me
But I don't know what you see in me
Take my hand I will follow you
Oh, that's for sure

You're the first when the morning dawns
You're the last when the day is done
You're the sun in a bright blue sky
Oh, that's for sure

And I remember
Days fair but gone
They came to tell me

Something's going on
And I just wondered
I closed my eyes
A simple vision
Just made me realise

Most of all I think it might be
Some kind of wonder or destiny
Some hidden truth
That has always been
Would you agree?

I could be turning
Away all again
Tracing myself
In state of being insane
I could mention
That's all a game
But that is not
What from this vision did remain

You do know what you mean to me
But I don't know what you see in me
Take my hand and I will follow you
Oh, that's for sure

You're the first when the morning dawns
You're the last when the day is done
You're the sun in a perfect sky
Oh, that's for sure
Oh, that's for sure

After Tears

Words & music by Markus Zosel

After tears
And after night
There's a sun
Shining bright
There's a morning
To your eyes
Just to let
You realise

That the dark
Is made to pass
And nothing's able Here to last

It's just the shadow
Of the light
Always there
And always right

Well, this life is so much more
No matter what you're looking for
You're always free which way to go
Even if you might not know
There's love
So much love for you

You may cry
Deep inside
About things
You're trying to hide
But one day
You got to let go
For there's so much
More to know

And you may find
It hard to see
Even harder
To believe
But it's there
Take a step
In front of you
So don't get back

Well, this life is so much more
No matter what you're looking for
You're always free which way to go
Even if you might not know
There's love
So much love for you

Something Like The Wind

Words & music by Markus Zosel

Something like the wind
In a bush or a tree
Some sort of wordless rhyme
That brings you back to me

Something like a rose
On a golden afternoon

High on a mountain ridge
But faded much too soon

Something like a dream
You dream again and again
Go on to free yourself
From chains that offer pain

Something like the rain
That falls from above
It's not just water
But drops of heavenly love

Something like a song
That warms deep inside
Listen to what it says
And try to make it your own

And something like a prayer
That always will be there
Whenever you're
In need of shelter
And of care
